

Nicholas Jauregui, MD Regional Medical Officer - Western Region

InnovAge PACE
(Program of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly)

“What attracted me to InnovAge was the thought of serving seniors and their families in such a way that allows them the support they need to remain in their homes. Together, we can ensure their golden years are enjoyed to the fullest.”

— Nicholas Jauregui

A native to California, Dr. Jauregui has been the regional medical director for SupportiveCare Medical Group, which serves several Southern California counties. His medical experience includes serving as the chief study investigator for multiple palliative care programs through UniHealth Foundation grants.

He received his medical degree from the School of Medicine at the University of California, San Diego, and is board-certified in family medicine, palliative medicine, and as a physician executive with the American College of Physician Executives.
