Emily Rogers, MD

InnovAge Colorado PACE
(Program of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly)

---

"It's my privilege to care for older adults. I love learning about their experiences and passions and strive to focus on what is most important to them when providing care."

— Emily Rogers

---

Dr. Rogers earned her medical degree from the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston, TX. She also completed an internship/residency in Internal Medicine at the University of Alabama and a Geriatric Medicine Fellowship at the University of Colorado. She is board certified in Internal Medicine and Geriatrics.

She has special interests in preventative care, women's health and helping reduce caregiver burden.

Dr. Rogers' husband is a pediatrician and they have a son. Their home also includes two cats and two dogs. She grew up in Texas. She and her family enjoy the weather and the people in Colorado. Dr. Rogers likes to hike, read, walk her dogs, travel and sample new restaurants in Denver. She speaks some Spanish and is always looking to practice with others who are more fluent in the language.
